

Treasury Services: ACH and Fraud Tips

2ND QUARTER 2026

Strong Growth Continues for the ACH Payment Network in 2026

In the first quarter of 2026, 8.9 billion ACH payments were processed over the ACH Network worth $24.1 trillion, up 9.3% from 2025. Same day ACH volume rose by 23.6% in 2026. Download the 2026 infographic. As a reminder, Treasury Manager can be enabled for this expedited ACH payment.

Learn More ►

Nacha Increases the Same Day ACH Limit in 2027

Nacha announced at the Smarter Faster Payments conference that it will increase the same day ACH per payment limit to $10 million in September of 2027. This will be the third increase in the history of Same Day ACH.

Learn More ►

New Nacha Fraud Rules are Effective Now

In the first quarter of 2026, new Nacha rules were introduced to monitor transactions and increase risk management tactics. The next phase will begin in June. Fraudsters are always evolving, so keep your business safe by following the new Nacha rules.

Learn More ►

Converting Payments to ACH: A Strategic Move for Modern Businesses

As organizations look for ways to reduce costs, improve efficiency, and strengthen cash flow, many are re-evaluating how they send and receive payments. One increasingly popular solution is converting payments to ACH (Automated Clearing House). ACH payments have become a cornerstone of the U.S. payments ecosystem, offering a reliable and cost effective alternative to checks, wires, and some card payments.

Learn More ►